Bootjack Stompers, Mariposa CA

Keep on Dancing in 2019

Mariposa, California is a beautiful quaint town full of Gold Rush history and is on Highway 49 (known as The Golden Chain) and Hwy 140 and is a gateway to Yosemite National Park, "The Jewel of the National Park System".

The Bootjack Stompers Square Dance Club was founded in 1949 and is located in Mariposa, CA (the original location was in Bootjack CA, hence the name Bootjack Stompers). We have a 50 y.o. beautiful solid oak dance floor, stage, dining area, kitchen and free parking. The club also has Line Dancing and Round Dancing (call for more information).

Mariposa's population is small and caters to tourism from all over the world to see Yosemite National Park and the quaint town of Mariposa. There are excellent restaurants, a variety of hotels, music, art, shopping and festivals throughout the year. There is a small hospital with 24/7 emergency services, clinics, etc. (www.jcf-hospital.com).

The Bootjack Stompers Square Dance Club is conveniently situated across from the Mariposa County Fairgrounds on Hwy 49S where there is RV camping and "Glamping" available.
